

RAMSEY JAY, JR.

Ramsey Jay, Jr. is widely recognized as a leading expert on developing leaders and has been called “a rising star” when it comes to motivating audiences with his words. He is Wall Street trained, Ivy League educated, advisor to prominent business leaders, author of Weekly Life Lessons in Leadership, sought-after keynote speaker, master of ceremonies, seminar presenter, speech instructor, and speech writer.

Driven by his mission in life to “discover dreamers, and empower dreamers to become achievers”, Ramsey began sharing his experiences and lessons with audiences over ten years ago. Today, Ramsey has traveled extensively and been featured on nationally-syndicated radio programs to share his vision with diverse audiences. A seasoned professional actively involved in the community, Ramsey has delivered moving messages to audiences of all types – from school-aged children to senior executives in Corporate America. Ramsey has keynoted alongside world renowned leaders, been recognized for his work in numerous publications, appointed as a delegate for the Turkish Cultural Foundation’s Tour to Istanbul, selected as an International Career Advancement Program Fellow, admitted to the Aspen Institute’s Socrates Society, and was named by EBONY Magazine as one of the top “30 Young Leaders Under 30”.

Ramsey is employed at Ares Management, a global investment management firm specializing in managing assets in both the private equity and leveraged finance markets. At Ares, Ramsey is responsible for capital raising and new product development. Ramsey’s professional financial qualifications include the Series 7, 31, and 65 Licenses. Ramsey earned his Masters in Business Administration from the Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College and his Bachelors Degree in Business Administration, with an emphasis in finance, from the Craig School of Business at California State University, Fresno.